FAMILY OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT: PERSONALITIES AND EVENTS

THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT IS MADE OF PERSONALITIES

Since the establishment of the Constitutional Court, professional experience has been accumulated, which allows for a comprehensive, impartial and prompt examination of each case. The most visible part of the Constitutional Court's team are the judges, but its employees also perform tasks that are essential for the effective functioning of the Court.

A GUEST IN THE WORLD, THE WORLD AS A GUEST

One of the priorities of the Constitutional Court is regular exchange of views and experience with international cooperation partners. The Constitutional Court is a recognised part of the European legal system and the global community of constitutional courts and contributes to the development of the legal area. International cooperation covers a wide geographical area and contributes to Latvia's visibility as a country governed by the rule of law.

TRADITIONS OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT

Over the years, various traditions have been established at the Constitutional Court. Some of them have been developed by emphasising the role of the Court in a democratic state governed by the rule of law or by organising discussions on the values enshrined in the Constitution, while others – as measures to strengthen the organisation of the Court's work and the sense of belonging to the Court family. The Constitutional Court maintains a dialogue with other constitutional institutions and society.
